

ROSE AWARD

The Oregon-Columbia Chapter's Recognition of Safety Excellence (ROSE) Award recognizes chapter leaders in safety excellence, provides an excellent way to document your achievements in safety, and offers an opportunity to receive well-deserved recognition from your peers in the industry. It is also a great tool to conduct a self-evaluation of your safety programs. ROSE Awards are presented at the chapter's annual business meeting each January. The ROSE award is the first step to participating in the CSEA competition.

2016 ROSE AWARD WINNERS

The 2016 ROSE awards were formally awarded at the Annual Business Meeting on January 27, 2017 at the Safety Award Luncheon. Star Rentals is the proud recipient of this year's Specialty Division First Place Award. Congratulations to all on outstanding safety efforts!

CSEA

The AGC of America Construction Safety and Excellence Award (CSEA) is an ongoing and evolving effort by AGC of America to recognize companies who have developed and implemented excellent safety and loss prevention programs achieved through management commitment, employee involvement, and program innovation. CSEA finalists are announced in January, and will compete at the AGC of America Annual Convention held in March.
